

Jamie McKenzie – Understudy

Jamie McKenzie grew up between Augathella and Tambo on a cattle property, in 2008 he moved between Morven and Augathella and that's where he has been since.

As soon as he finished school he headed north to Carlton Hill where he really started getting into his horses. Jamie ended up working at Carlton for four years and in that time as done at least one Ronnie Wall school a year, plus two breaking in schools in the last two years.

Growing up Jamie had always been around horses, but Ronnie's schools were where he really started to learn a lot more and wanted to get better especially with young horses.
