

Scott Keogh – Announcer

Central Highlands Colt Starting Challenge is ecstatic to have the 2014 Champion of the Colt Starting Challenge, Scott Keogh returns to impart his professional commentary to this event.

Scott Keogh is a horse breaker and trainer operating his business SK Horsemanship, located in Clifton, South East Queensland.

Scott is a former saddle bronc riding champion that has competed both in Australia in the United State. He is a third generation professional horse trainer that starts approximately 200 head at his complex.

The release of Scott's training DVD "Sport Horse 101" and "Sport Horse 202" has been an overwhelming success & has been selling in 6 countries.

During the Central Highlands Colt Starting Challenge spectators will benefit from Scott's expert commentary, explaining the processes and the theories that the Colt Starting Challenge competitors will be demonstrating. Throughout the two days, Scott will also be conducting interviews with the Judge Rob Leach and competitors Ranelle Carter, Adam White and Luke Bennett.

Amalgamating Scott Keogh's equine knowledge and prior involvement as a competitor in Colt Starting Challenge, gives him unique insight and firsthand knowledge to deliver a distinctive genuine observations on the competitors techniques and experiences. This unique contribution that Scott Keogh will deliver will indisputably enhance the experience for the spectators, maximising their capability to acquire knowledge.

Telephone: 0400 734 990

Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/ScottKeoghHorsemanship>

Email springcreekbranch@live.com.au